3 December – Adapting to the here and now... and tomorrow!	35.71% 5
17 December – Time to connect, reflect and eat mince pies!	21.43% 3
I did not attend any of the events but caught up with the recordings at a later date	14.29% 2
I did not attend any of the events or listen to the recordings	14.29% 2
Total Respondents: 14

If you did not attend or listen to any of the recordings please could you provide some insight as to why, i.e. content not relevant, lack of time, furloughed etc

On Maternity leave

Did not realise they were going on.

Q2. Overall, how would you rate any you attended or subsequently listened to?

■ Excellent   
 ■ Good   
 ■ Fair   
 ■ Poor
■ N/A - I did not attend or listen to any of the webinar/online events

	EXCELLENT	GOOD	FAIR	POOR	N/A - I DID NOT ATTEND OR LISTEN TO ANY OF THE WEBINAR/ONLINE EVENTS	TOTAL	WEIGHTED AVERAGE

Q3. Was there anything specific you liked about any of the events you attended?

The online flexibility
Opportunity to bring partners together with a common purpose
Sharing of experiences and good practice.
It was a great opportunity for partners to connect, share the challenges they face and share positive solutions/good practice
It's really important to stay connected to other providers and offer each other support at this time!
It's a subject we need to address more and it's great to have a network where we can all share best practice/ learn from each other etc
The response to the ongoing challenge of covid and how this is impacting on those with disabilities in a different way. It gave partners the time and space to reflect on the challenges and draw on each other's work and support. Keeping everybody connected throughout 2020 (regardless of their situation) was very important. Allowing the network to react to the the inclusive response to COVID-19 in sport and activity from Activity Alliance was an excellent way to get the group thinking about how we can respond locally.
I am always keen to hear what other people are doing, but also it is now important that everyone works together in a post covid and brexit world as people have been not able to be as fit and active as before
The networking opportunity in the breakout rooms
Good to hear what other organisations are dealing with and how and to share ideas.
Informal chat with no agendas are preferable for me.

Q4. Was there anything specific that you didn't like about any of the events you attended?

Ice breakers
It was a very well organised and informative event
I felt the event on the 3rd Dec could have done with more time as there was some excellent conversations happening
I only attended one - there wasn't enough time and there needs to be a regular meeting about the topic of diversity and inclusivity
No. The event I attended was timely and without the restrictions on everyone professionally and personally it would've been great to extend the conversation. However, the frequency of the events have given the opportunity for partners to meet at regular times and this has been extremely important.
It's hard to be critical as with Zoom overload, technical issues etc... online events are not easy to run.

Q6: Would you like SDSN online forums/webinars to continue during 2021?

ANSWER CHOICES	RESPONSES
Yes - Monthly	14.29% 2
Yes - every couple of months	42.86% 6
Yes - adhoc (as topics arise)	42.86% 6
No	0.00% 0
Total Respondents: 14

Q7: Are there any specific topics you would like to see at future online events?

Joined up thinking and collaborate working

Response to Covid as activity returns

Engaging older adults with disabilities/long term conditions

More open forum conversations; more focus on tackling some of the rising health inequality issues; keep plugging away with the collaborative approach

Diversity and Inclusion

The opportunity to meet regularly to discuss the ever changing landscape regarding covid (and the subsequent restrictions) is going to be really important. But also the chance to discuss what the longer term impact of disabled sport/physical activity might be is going to be important as we move through the year. Covid will one day pass and will providers be ready to respond to the need? How can the network do more to support each other to do this?

Opportunities to collaborate / partnerships

Collaboration as I feel this is the way forwards as organisations feel the impact of Covid and associated cuts etc.

I would like to see if we can collaborate on some research to gather views from disabled participants/carers on the effectiveness of online delivery/sessions.

Q8: If you are from an education setting, in what ways can Active Sussex support your PE, sport and physical activity provision? Please provide your contact details at the end of this survey if you would like direct support.

No response or N/A to this question

Q9: Do you or your organisation have any specific workforce/training needs that Active Sussex could potentially support with? Please provide your contact details at the end of this survey if you would like direct support.

Sharing best practice

Yes! Diversity and inclusion training for coaches and also clubs - how to become a more diverse and inclusive club. Template job role description for diversity and inclusion champs/ Template policies etc

Q10: Is there anything else you'd like to share or highlight, or specific support you wish to flag? Please provide your contact details at the end of this survey if you would like direct support.

Sharing best practice & networking

Excellent series events that were timely, informative and brought partners together

I'm happy to offer workforce development advice and guidance to any partners looking for support.

I think it's been great having input from Activity Alliance to provide more of national perspective.

Could we have a group created on a social media platform - eg Facebook or linkedin - so members can contact each other more easily and we can upload and share resources here; post questions; etc

Not at the moment

Sharing information on how we are trying to remodel our services.

28 January 2021: SDSN Online forum – discussion points to feedback

- SDSN forums are key to facilitate ongoing discussions
- Take a fluid and flexible approach to future forums/webinars to accommodate organic conversations (90mins ideal)
- Perhaps have separate opportunities for ‘networking/sharing/connecting’ and ‘specific learning’
- Undertake some research to with SDSN members to understand the experiences of online provision.
- Communication between members;
  - Promotion of the SDSN Facebook group – more admins to share activity
  - Perhaps look at LinkedIn as a platform to create a more partner based space to share
- SDSN Mentor scheme – develop 121 connections (similar to the previous coaching mentor programme). So much knowledge in the network that could be more formally harnessed.

Some potential talking points/future session topics;

- New Sport England Strategy
- Digital Exclusion/inclusion!
  - Content – what does this look like/is the right content being created?
  - How can it better reach the audience?
  - Use of multiple platforms – what is best for who and what - Live/on demand!
- 21 Session campaign – building confidence to getting back to activity
- Social Prescribing/Health referrals
- Long covid effects (especially considering those who may have previously been active)
- Engaging harder to reach groups – including people who don’t identify as living with a disability
